

LIEAP ENERGY ASSISTANCE ENROLLMENT PERIOD

IS OPEN THROUGH MARCH 31

Assistance with energy bills is available in Kansas for low-income households that meet certain qualifications. The Low Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP) is a federally-funded program that helps eligible households pay a portion of their home energy costs by providing a one-time per year benefit. Applications are made through the Kansas Department of Children and Families.

The 2015 application period is January 20 through 5:00 p.m. March 31, 2015. Here are the basic eligibility provisions for qualifying for assistance:

1. An adult living at the address must be personally responsible for paying the heating costs incurred at the current residence, payable either to the landlord or the fuel vendor.
2. Applicants must demonstrate a recent history of payments toward purchase of the primary heating energy. (Two payments made during the last three months that total at least $80 are generally considered sufficient to meet this requirement.)
3. The household must qualify under the following income guidelines:
